

We offer a comprehensive APC TRAINING PROGRAMME

To our people. Here's what it involves:

Enrolling onto the programme

Under the guidance of their Line Manager, candidates would normally enrol onto the programme two years from the date that they would be taking their final assessment (subject to pathway).

Assignment of a counsellor

This is an in-house mentor who has recent experience of the final assessment and who has undertaken both the Henry Riley's in-house counsellor training and the RICS' counsellor training - for example, they might have passed their APC one or two assessment dates prior.

Quarterly training sessions

During these sessions, candidates from across our UK offices come together for a full day's training workshop covering various aspects of the final assessment which include Q+A's, interactive sessions and a guest speaker.

Pre-qualification process

The candidate will meet with their Supervisor and Counsellor to go through the pre-qualification process to help them prepare for the final assessment.

SINCE OUR PROGRAMME WAS RELAUNCHED
IN 2018, WE ARE VERY PLEASED TO HAVE COACHED
